FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (August 28, 1986)

CHARLESTON, IL.--Five Eastern Illinois University football players have been chosen as team captains for the 1986 season.

The five are quarterback Sean Payton (Naperville-Central) and wide receiver Roy Banks (Detroit, MI-King) from the offense, strong safety Bob Bronaugh (Rantoul) and linebacker Bill Cochrané (Lake Zurich) from the defense and Dan Polewski (Dolton-Thornridge/Thornton CC) representing the special teams.

"All of these young men are tremendous individuals in our program," said coach Al Molde. "I couldn't be more pleased with who the team has chosen to lead the '86 Panthers."
